

Daughterhood The Podcast - Episode 4
911 - Dr Bob Czincilla
SHOW NOTES

- 1:00 Protocol for ED - is there a protocol for dementia
- 5:09 When do you call 911 or can you go to PCP, Minute Clinic or other
- 6:43 Telemedicine
- 11:33 Getting history from patient
- 14:10 POLST medical directives
- 16:15 Family doesn't agree with DNR
- 18:02 Emergency Medicine personnel
- 20:20 Do you stay with loved one in the ED and/or if they are admitted?
- 22:09 How to deal with resistant loved one
- 23:20 Longer you wait the worse things can become - Earlier recognition is best
- 24:05 Things can get worse quickly
- 25:02 Medical Command for EMS
- 25:37 How would you advise them if they are refusing
- 27:00 Getting law enforcement involved
- 28:00 If something significant is happening (not breathing, chest pain, bleeding) call 911!
- 28:30 Chronological order if something concerning is happening
- 29:00 Bring pertinent information - medication list, allergies, major surgeries, etc
- 30:55 Observation in ED versus Admission in hospital
- 33:33 Medicare and 3 day rule
- 35:03 Want to see people have good outcomes

Websites for topics covered:

Dementia and The ER-A Toxic Combination

<https://www.managedhealthcareconnect.com/articles/dementia-and-er-toxic-combination>

National POLST Paradigm

<https://polst.org/>

Medicare 3 Day Rule

<https://www.medicare.gov/pubs/pdf/11435-are-you-an-inpatient-or-outpatient.pdf>

Dr Robert Czincila graduated from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine and completed his Emergency Medicine Residency Program at Albert Einstein Medical Center, while being Chief Resident of its Emergency Medicine Department. Along with working as a physician in Philadelphia area hospitals for the last 20 years, Dr Czincilla is currently the Chief of the Department of Emergency Medicine as well as the Physician Leader for Patient Experience at Einstein Medical Center Montgomery.